Question	Answer(s)
Would we be able to take the microeconomics at UCR?	Happy to answer. Yes, you will be allowed to take Microeconomics (ECON 003) at UCR, given you have not already completed at your community college. I hope this helps.
I have an interest in public utilities, specifically energy are there any events for this topic?	Absolutely. We often times host seminars with local energy and tech companies. I would encourage you to check out our YouTube page. This has recorded videos of past seminars, many of them that you may be interested in. https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCf0eN3HM1cYDsIB-lywBNFw
What concentration is best for higher education policy?	Most people interested in Higher Ed policy will do the Social Family Cultural Track and the Policy Institutions track. There are some great classes on higher ed policy, intercollegiate athletic policy, etc.
