Why I Chose UCR

Southern California is the place to be, and UCR is one of the biggest up and coming universities of the twenty-first century. I gave up other top tier schools to come here, and I don't regret the decision to attend this fine institution.

Getting Involved

My favorite UCR experience so far is all the extracurricular activities - mainly with ASUCR (Associated Students of UCR). Most of the friends and connections I have made started with being on a ASUCR committee.

Cultural Exploration

UCR has continued to impress me in both its diversity and its desire to get students actively involved in the community. UCR helped me meet some of the best people, and allowed me to branch out and explore new cultures and activities.

Hitting The Road

I've mainly traveled through the Central Valley, Big Sur, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Riverside, and San Francisco and the Bay Area. I've seen the multitude of different identities and cultures blend together throughout the various regions of California.

A NEW CHAPTER BEGINS AT UCR

It was a big culture shock for me, but I've come to love it here at UCR! I joined a national coed honor fraternity, and it has really made me feel like I was home. UCR has opened a whole new chapter for me, and I'm forever grateful that I got this opportunity!

ENDLESS FUN IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Riverside is incredibly lively. It has little festivals all the time, like the Dickens Festival and the Festival of Lights. There's always a place to listen to live music, and tons of small food places. If you drive a little farther, you can experience LA and San Diego. There's so much to do – you can go every day and never do the same thing twice!

Home Away From Home

I chose to attend UCR because of the warm welcome I experienced when I first visited. Attending a school that made me feel at home was important to me, and UCR did just that. The diversity on campus and campus programs are amazing!

Invaluable Mentorship

UCR's programs, such as African Student Programs, helped me adjust to attending school out-of-state. Its friendly environment helped me to make friends. I also gained a mentor through its mentor program, which helped me stay on top of my schoolwork.

Enthusiastic Faculty

My favorite professor is Thomas Sy, Ph.D. He is an amazing lecturer, filled with a tremendous amount of enthusiasm and passion.

Fun In The Sun

My favorite UCR experience so far was Spring Splash (an on-campus outdoor music festival). I also hike and dance for fun. I have been dirt bike riding in Palm Springs, jet skiing in San Diego, and hiking up to the Hollywood sign in LA.
