Innovative Research

Get the Competitive Edge with Undergraduate Research

UCR offers research opportunities to all undergraduate students! This advantage catapults you to the “top of the list” for jobs and/or graduate school. Current SPP research includes:

- Bridging the gap between abstract political theory and “nitty gritty” policy work
- Discovering how residential conservation during droughts affect wastewater reuse
- Exploring immigration’s impact on voting patterns

High-Profile Companies Hire SPP Graduates

SPP graduates go on to work as analysts, attorneys, campaign managers, health educators, grant writers, politicians, marketing/communications specialists and more!

6 Policy Tracks

Choose two of six specializations:
- Economic
- Health/population
- International/foreign
- Policy institutions and processes
- Social/cultural/family
- Urban/environmental

"UCR is such an enriching environment, everyone, and I mean EVERYONE, is willing to help. As a whole, UCR is so community-based. Nearly every student on campus is volunteering or working in our community to help the greater good. I personally have been a part of so many organizations where we have gone out into our community to help others. UCR has taught me to reach past myself and into my community.
